

Christian Trafficking Shelter Association

Announcing The First Annual Christian Trafficking Shelter Association Conference: “Hope through Restoration: Providing Quality Shelter Services for Survivors of Sex Trafficking” sponsored by The Home Foundation, Thursday, March, 11, 2010 in Nashville, Tennessee.

Are you interested in learning more about the issue of human trafficking and sexual exploitation? Do you desire to be part of the process of hope for the countless number of individuals impacted by the sex trade? Have you felt called to be involved in shelter building for these individuals but over-whelmed by the amount of work required to make this a reality? Here is your opportunity to learn from experts in the field and network with other groups on this journey. This conference will help you to gain a historical perspective on the problem, attain skills which will enable you to move forward in starting your shelter including guidance on how to work with law enforcement, and provide you with tools to develop and assess quality within your restorative program.

The cost for the day is $75 if paid by March 1--$100 on-site.
Students are $50 paid by March 1 & $75 on-site.
